Another successful Hutt Art Pottery Creative Clay Exhibition was held at the Odlin Gallery Lower Hutt In November. There was a fun filled opening with successful sales.

Alan Ross was our selector and had a display of his quality anagama and salt glazed pieces. He was asked to select pieces for a number of awards. The recipients were:-

Selectors Choice: Jocelyn Hendry

Jocelyn Hendry – Selectors Choice

Joseph Rastorfer- Realism

Nicola Redvers-Newton Glaze

Lut Hermans – First time Exhibitor

Hamish Trolove- Imagination

Eleanor Howick - Shape

Lesley ransom and Jocelyn Hendry were congratulated on the setting up, which is always a challenge due to the diversity of styles. Over the ten days we were open nearly 50% of the works were sold. Amazing in today's economic climate.
